

Suitcase in Point presents
Kabaret Citizens Inc.

Set in the underworld of a corporate monarchy, Kabaret Citizens Inc. stars Niagara's experimental emerging professional theatre artists from Suitcase In point (SIP). The cast includes Dee Jones as Lady Excess [the CEO] and her corporate whores Natasha Pedros, Cole Lewis, Miles Coverdale and Steve Watson. This raucous presentation is an evening of wild performances, musical numbers, innovative movement, and racy scenes. At the climax of the show is a vignette, directed by Cole Lewis, starring Jessica Carmichael, Edwin Conroy Jr. and Miles Coverdale, branded The Corporate Western. Kabaret Citizens Inc. features original and live music by Joe Lapinski and Jay Peters and an ultra corporate environment designed by modern furniture guru Don Dormady.

The project is collectively written by the Suitcase In Point (SIP) ensemble and has been a work in progress since June 2003. It has been made possible through a grant awarded by the City of St. Catharines and sponsorship by the Merchant Ale House. SIP is presenting the show in conjunction with Metasizing Capital: The Size of Unbridled Growth a conference being held at Brock University. The three day event is organized by the Faculty of Social Science and the Humanity Research Group and features keynote speaker, Italian moral and political philosopher, Antonio Negri. More information can be found at www.brocku.ca/~webdev/multitude/.

Kabaret Citizens Inc. will tour to the Cameron House in Toronto on 12 April at 9pm.

Suitcase In Point is a group of dynamic performers and contemporary artists, musicians, and poets, best known for their wonderful and wacky Cabarets performed in downtown St. Catharines at the Merchant Ale House. This group of experimental wits have also created and produced Be Wearing Wolf, Cordially Entertaining Emily Chesley, sexLass, Groundwater, and A Junky's Cabaret. The Suitcase In Point Performance Posse lives and grows in the beautiful garden city of St. Catharines. They have toured to Toronto, Hamilton, Windsor, London, Guelph and England. Their mandate is to create new work employing ethics of risk, growth, celebration and community.
